

SHOW MANAGER

Below are the rules concerning your responsibility at APHA shows. Please read carefully.

Rule SC-110:

- A. Any Reputable person who can furnish proof that he is capable through ability or experience may act in the capacity of show manager.
- B. PERSON IN CHARGE. The show manager shall be the person in charge of the Paint Horse Division of the show or contest. Mandatory attendance of the show manager on the show grounds is required while he/she is in charge.
- C. The show manager shall have the jurisdiction over preparing and mailing all entry blanks, premium lists and catalogs. He shall enforce the arrival and departure times as shown in the premium list or as advertised.
- D. The show manager shall at all times extend every effort to satisfy the comfort of the horses, the exhibitors, the spectators and the officials. He shall be held responsible for maintenance of clean and orderly conditions throughout the show or contest.
- E. The show manager shall have the sole authority to enforce all rules referring to the show or contest. He may excuse any horse or exhibitor from the show or contest prior to or during the judging for the safety of other horses or the spectators or remove an exhibitor for unsportsmanlike conduct.
- F. The show management shall not accept additional entries in a class once competition or judging for that class has begun.
- G. He shall make sure all obstacles, barriers, starting lines, markers, etc., are returned to their original position for each contestant so that conditions are identical for all contestants.
- H. The show management shall use his judgment on whether the show arena gates will be open or closed during timed events. EXCEPTION: YP-080.K. His decision shall be based upon the condition and layout of the show arena.
- I. The show management must line up in order and announce placings of all contestants one through seven places prior to allowing final contestants to retire from the arena. This includes all classes under all judges.
- J. At the close of the show or contest, the show management shall retain copies of the original signed judge's placing cards, copy of the show results and entry cards for a least one (1) year from date of show.
